From the Editor

Hello everyone,

Once again it is winter and we have another strain of the dreaded Covid virus to contend with. Some of our local activities have been curtailed as a result. Roll on spring so that we can all meet outside again!

Network is still in desperate need of a new Editor. I will be doing two more issues and then I need someone to take over. If you believe that Harrietsham needs it's village magazine and think you could help, get in touch. Call me on 07484 310307. Leave a message if I can't pick up and I will call you back as soon as I can. Full details are on page 15.

PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE

A bit late, but better late than never. There are some lovely photos of Santa's Sleigh ride through the village on pages 12 and 13.

If you have any copy for Network, please do send it in. Some stories, poems, photos etc would be very much appreciated.

Stay safe everyone

Jan - Editor

Please remember to email any photographs, articles of interest about Harrietsham, or recipes etc. that could be considered for inclusion to:

Harrietsham Gardening Society

On Tuesday 14 December the Society held its Xmas Social which was attended by 26 members. Unfortunately, our scheduled speaker was unable to attend due to Covid but the entertainment was provided by Kevin Harlock and Mike Flawn. Kevin started the evening off with a humorous slide show and followed it with a paper aeroplane competition which caused much mirth and many failures. At the interval the Society provided festive snacks and nibbles and everyone supplied their own drink. This was followed by a raffle with a great many prizes. For the second half of the evening Mike held a quiz with a seasonal theme. It was not too easy and there were a number of questions which needed some thought and a few good guesses. The winning team shared a bag of Quality Street chocolates.

We will continue 2022 with our regular meetings on the third Tuesday of the month at 7.30pm.

If you are new to the village and would like to get involved in some of the social side of life please come along and see if we can offer some guidance and entertainment as well as meeting some of the village's more knowledgeable inhabitants.

Mike Flawn

Harrietsham History Society

I am pleased to confirm we were at long last able to hold a meeting with members on Monday 15 November and I am very happy to advise you that although our membership is down in numbers there were 13 members and 2 visitors at the meeting. A short AGM took place which included the presentation of the accounts, the re-election of the existing officers and the election of a new committee member Mike Bishop. The future of the society was discussed, and it was agreed to keep the £15.00 yearly membership fee and to proceed with organising some bi-monthly meetings with speakers for 2022. Most of the members present were in favour of holding these meetings in the afternoon with perhaps one evening meeting in the summer. The society secretary Carole presented information on some very interesting subjects which include: - The SS Montgomery – The ship which lies sunken 200 yards off the Northern Coast of the Isle of Sheppey, Smuggling on the South Coast, Eva Braun – Victim or Contriver and HMS Victory & the Battle of Trafalgar. Everyone agreed Carole should proceed with contacting some of these speakers to ascertain their availability as soon as possible. Details of the meeting dates and subjects will hopefully be available on our website early in the new year. www.harrietshamhistorysociety.org

We anticipate our first meeting will be a workshop afternoon on 21 February when we will continue to sort through more of the items which we have collected for the village archive We will confirm the details regarding this on our website.

I shall look forward to seeing everyone again and meantime wish you all a very happy and healthy New Year.

Peter Brown

Harrietsham Short Mat Bowls

February is upon us, and as I write this note on the first of January 2022, Christmas and the New Year have passed us by, but even so the Committee and I hope that 2022 brings all our members best wishes for the best of health for the year ahead.

Let us also hope this month enables us to organize friendly matches against other clubs, something that has been missing since the beginning of our Covid lockdown. We have had some good competitive roll-ups since returning to Harrietsham Village Hall but the experience of playing against another club adds just a little more excitement and edge to your game. The problem at the time of writing this article is that once again Covid, and the new strain Omicron, have meant that clubs have found it impossible to field teams with enough fit members to make it happen. Let us hope that by the time you read this in February things will have changed.

We had a Christmas Lunch on December 17 when we joined Detling SMBC. It was held at Cobtree Manor Golf Club and was well attended by members of both clubs who all agreed it was an excellent event. Our thanks go to Alan for his organizational skills.

Our advert in Network for new members has been read and acted on by at least one new recruit, Alan Payne, who has taken up the opportunity to give Short Mat Bowls a try. In quite a short time, Alan has taken to the game well which is encouraging as the club has lost several members to ill health.

I hope you all stay healthy and encourage you to keep on bowling even if we can only manage to play roll-ups at this time.

Phil Gooda - Chairman/Secretary

Harrietsham Fish Scheme

Save the date!

We would love to see as many of you as possible at the Scout Hut on Wednesday 16 March at 7.30pm for the Annual General Meeting.

Please mark it in your diaries and come and join us.

Full details will be published in the March Issue of Network.

Harrietsham's Village Magazine

Needs a new Editor

We are looking for a volunteer who would enjoy the challenge of piecing together the editorial content of our monthly village magazine, keeping all Harrietsham residents up to speed with what's been happening and what's happening soon.

Network is currently produced using Microsoft Publisher software in a Windows environment, which is very similar to Microsoft Word. So, if you have used either Word or Publisher you won't need very much training to get into the swing of things. If not, get in touch anyway, this could be your chance to learn something new. Training and support will be provided along with a laptop computer and software.

You will need about 15-20 hours each month to start with, at times to suit you, while you get the hang of things. As with all things, you will need less time as you become more experienced.

WE NEED SOMEONE TO START NOW

to give you a training headstart.

There is also an opportunity to learn some Photoshop techniques to help you manipulate photographs and design our front covers.

This is a great opportunity to make loads of new friends here in Harrietsham and to help the organisations and clubs move forward.

Do YOU fancy having a go?

Call me (Jan) now for a chat on 07484 310 307 or email me:

Percival's Rest

The local watering and feeding hole is traditionally the heart of any community and Harrietsham is no exception. Since 1738 The Roebuck now known as Percival's Rest has been the centre of the village, serving the community and giving the village a focus. The new, re-imagined Percival's Rest is striving to be just that.

Percival's now sports a new, clean & elegant interior with a menu to match, with something for everyone from traditional Beef Burgers & Sunday lunch to freshly made Scotch Eggs, perfectly cooked steak or delicate scallops. The menu is seasonal, making use of some of the best of our local produce which comes from within a 15 miles radius.

Since its launch in May, this family owned business and keen local employer is hitting the right spot, eager to serve the village which also includes charity fundraising such as Charity Quiz nights running every month. The quizzes have been a huge success, the winners receiving a bottle of Prosecco, even the losers got chocolate consolation prizes. Local charities have been able to raise £100's for their causes.

The events list for Percival's is getting busier by the week including showing as much of the six nations as possible in the bar, live performances, hog roasts, Easter Egg hunts, steak night Thursdays (£35 for 2 steak dinners & a bottle of wine), breakfast on Saturdays with bottomless brunches from 11am and more.

Christmas Day was a big success and they are already taking bookings for this year, although let's not get ahead of ourselves, roll on the summer with cold drinks and good food on the terrace first!

Percival's Rest are looking for more local performers so if you, or someone you know wants to get involved, then please get in touch.

Events and Regular activities in Harrietsham

Please will everyone who is organising or hosting events in Harrietsham or for Harrietsham residents help Network by sending us details of forthcoming events and reports and photos of recent events for the magazine. Keeping us all informed gets better attendance at your event and keeps our community spirit alive.

Before the pandemic, we had a day-to-day events list for regular events and a diary for everything else. Since the pandemic things have been a little bit sparse, so if you know something's going to happen, please share it with us so that we can share it with everyone else in our village. Please help us to get things back to normal.

Now's the time to grab a camera and go out and photograph some winter scenes in our beautiful countryside and around the village. How about sending some in to Network... editor@harrietshamfishscheme.org and we'll publish the best ones and the names of the photographers who took them. Perhaps some of our younger residents would like to take part.... Good quality mobile phone photos work very well in the magazine.

Please send all other contributions to editor@harrietshamfishscheme.org

Thank you all.

Lenham WI

Our Christmas meeting was held at Lenham Social Club and we were treated to some lovely 40's, 50's and 60's songs from Miss Vintage. It was great to have a sing along and some of us actually got up to dance as well. After being so busy for the lead up to Christmas it is nice to have some time to plan ahead. This month we are having a Games Evening – maybe another Beetle Drive!

I am sure we are all now looking forward to the longer days of Spring. I will be trying to get out for a walk to stretch my legs and get some fresh air every day. It is so important and who knows who I may bump into for a chat. The WI has been tackling loneliness for 106 years and in 2017 members voted to make it a national campaign. With the situation over the last two years many people have had difficulty in communicating with others. Loneliness does not just mean feelings of isolation or being physically alone. It is also about having social connections and many people have found it difficult to even start a conversation with someone else. Maybe we should all try to have one positive thought or do one positive thing every day.

We would like to welcome you to our WI meetings and if you would like to come along we meet at the Community Centre on the second Thursday of the month at 7.30pm. We will be pleased to see you. For further information please get in touch: Email: rrgodden@btinternet.com Or to actually talk to me - Tel: 01622 858658

An important message from our Community Warden

As I am writing this the New Year is fast approaching and I am wondering what 2022 will bring. The last almost two years have been challenging at times, but there are lots of examples of the community pulling together to help each other.

The community warden service has been helping (and is still helping) people across Kent. My colleagues and I are visiting the vulnerable and supporting them in many ways. This ranges from supporting residents to obtain food through to providing a friendly, familiar face and a listening ear.

If you know someone who needs support or is lonely there are people who can help. If you wish to become more actively involved many agencies and local clubs rely on volunteers to deliver their services.

There are a number of ways of accessing support depending on need.

Kent Together can offer various types of support.

You can find contact details on the Kent County Council website by searching for Kent Together.

Alternatively you can call 03000 41 92 92

Samaritans can be contacted 24/7 on 116 123 free.

If you need to report an issue to the Police in an emergency ring 999.

For non-urgent matters ring 101. This number will connect you to the nearest Police Service.

You can report issues online using the Kent Police website.

Please report any issues at the time where possible.

I hope 2022 proves to be a better year for all of us. Look after yourselves and each other.

HARRIETSHAM WIVES GROUP

The members thoroughly enjoyed the Christmas Dinner at Percival's Rest at the beginning of December. What a pleasure it is to have the pub back in the Village.

It was lovely to welcome the members to our January meeting who braved the miserable weather to have a chat and take part in a quiz and Beetle drive whilst enjoying home baked flapjacks.

The February meeting at 7.30pm on Wednesday 2nd will be held at the Scout Hut and will be our annual auction, proceeds of which go to our nominated charity. If you are interested in becoming a member please come along and meet us or contact me on the telephone number below.

We hope you have had a lovely Christmas and wish you a Happy New Year.

Christian Message

As a teenager I had an outstanding mane of long curly hair. My enviable locks would bounce on the shoulders of my big baggy jumpers as I embraced a rather relaxed approach to life! It was during this phase of life that a friend asked me about my Christian faith. I confidently declared, "Basically, Christianity is just about loving God and loving everyone else!"

In the years that have followed, my hair has returned to a more conservative length and my understanding of my faith has certainly become more nuanced. But there was a simplicity to my thinking at that time that challenges the modern, knitwear version of myself to re-evaluate what's really important.

A few years ago, I became a father and that launched me into a completely new journey of discovery. So far, the most significant shift in my thinking has been in the area of love. Currently, the give/receive ratio in my relationship with my three young children is quite firmly stacked with me on the giving side! And yet despite that, I love them with everything I've got and find myself wanting to show them more of that love everyday.

I was recently reading 1 John 4, which is an incredible passage of scripture when it comes to thinking about love. In it we're reminded that God showed His love for us by sending Jesus to die in our place. God showed how much he loved us by sending his one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through him. This is real love—not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins. (1 John 4:9-10)

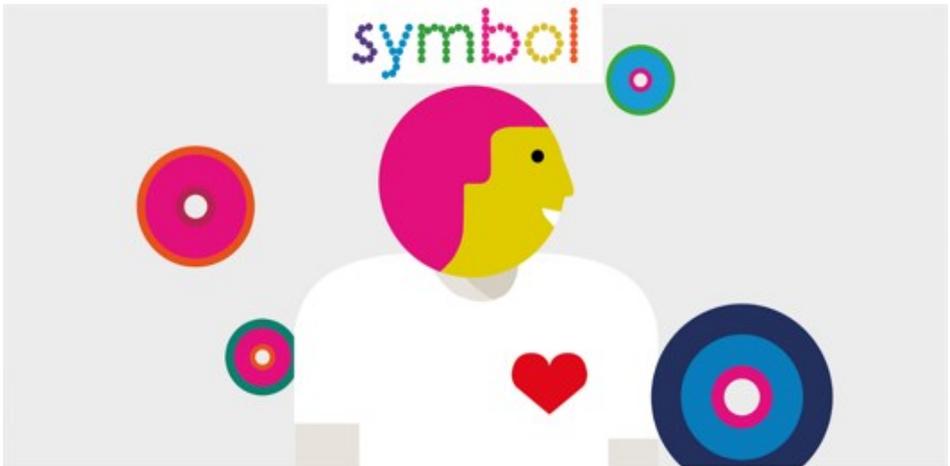

Because of this incredible display of love, by a God who is love, we're implored to love each other. 'Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No-one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and His love is made complete in us.' (1 John 4:11-12)

That's not always an easy thing to do, especially when we feel we get nothing in return from the people we ought to love. But here's seven words of scripture with limitless depth:

'We love because He first loved us.' (1 John 4:19)

Sometimes it feels so unnatural to love others. Christianity is not about doing so simply because it's a good thing to do. Christianity celebrates that God took the first step and an invitation is made for us to love others having first received God's love for us. He loved us despite the fact that we're prone to being so unlovable! I'm so grateful for this magnificent love that He has displayed through Jesus!

Top Tips from Harrietsham Gardening Society

It is very tempting when we get a few mild or even sunny days in February to get a few things going in the garden. However, if the soil is too wet, especially if you're on heavy clay, you can do more harm than good by walking on the soil and turning it into a compacted airless layer, which will be useless for seed sowing and all that frost action to create a lovely friable tilth will be abortive. You can, of course, use something like an old scaffold board to walk on, which means towards the end of the month you can sow parsnips, which will take about 6 weeks to germinate, and onion seeds. Hopefully, the early potato 'seeds' you bought last month will be forming some sturdy chits so keep them in the light and frost-free ready for planting out in early March. If you haven't got a veg plot you can get really good results in pots or an old bucket. This can provide an opportunity for a bit of competition for the children.

If you are lucky enough to have a greenhouse or cold frame you can start to sow an early lettuce crop, summer cabbages and leeks ready for planting out once they are hardened off. With all the disruption to supply of salads from the continent it is useful to grow your own, so we don't have to rely on imports so much in any event.

Not many people know, but when the Brexit negotiations were going on Harrietsham declared war on the French!! It became clear that the French had demanded free access to the trout stream running through the village and down past the allotments and even the Trout Farm itself, for their fishing industry. A meeting was called in the Village Hall car park as the Hall was closed and a chap, I forget his name but let's call him David, was elected to represent the Village. The scenario went like this:

President Macron was sitting in his office near the fish counter in the Auchan Hypermarket when the phone rang.

"Hello Mr Macron, this is David from Harrietsham, I'm afraid you're not having our trout and we're declaring war on you"

"Well," was the reply, "and how big is your army?"

"Right now," said David, "we've just printed call-up papers in Network, but there's myself, four from the Bowls team, five from the cricket team, three from the tennis club and the entire Parish Council so I make that 23."

The President thought for a moment then said, "David, I have to tell you I have 100,000 men in my army waiting upon my command"

"Dear, oh dear," said David, "I'll have to ring you back."

Sure enough the next day David rings again. "Mr Macron, the war is still on. We have managed to set up a mechanised division by enlisting all the motorbikes and four-by-fours that speed along the Pilgrims' way and we have roped in the tractor-mounted hedge cutter as well."

Mr Macron sighs and says, "I must tell you, David, that I have 6,000 tanks and 5,000 armoured personnel carriers, plus I've increased my army to 150,000 since we last spoke."

"I'll ring you back", says David.

As expected, the next day David rings again. "Mr President, we've had another meeting and the war is still on. We have managed to get ourselves airborne. We have been practising hang-gliding from the top of Stede Hill and the Church tower and we have a squadron of kamikaze pilots at the ready. Also, three more have joined us from the Whist club and Harrietsham in Bloom are allowing us to use the planters along the A20 as pill-box gun emplacements."

Mr Macron considered, for a moment, gave a silent Gallic shrug and said "I must tell you, David, that I have 100 bombers, 200 fighters and I've increased my army to 200,000 men."

"That's a lot", said David, "I'll get back to you".

David calls again the next day. "I've some good news, we decided the war is off".

"Why the sudden change of heart?"

"Well, it's like this. We had a meeting over a few pints of mild and a couple of packets of crisps behind the Working Men's Club and we decided there's no way the Coop and Sean's shop will be able to feed 200,000 prisoners."

In the flower garden there are plenty of jobs to do. Once snowdrops and aconites have finished flowering split the clumps up and replant them immediately which will help to increase your stock and create a carpet. They take much better than planting from bulbs. Dahlia tubers can be potted up to enable you to take cuttings from the shoots which appear and again increase your stock. Shrubs which are grown for winter colour such as red- and yellow-stemmed dogwood and white-stemmed blackberry should be cut right down at the end of the month to encourage new growth for vivid colour next winter. Buddleias can be cut hard back too to encourage more and larger flower heads.

One thing worth a try is forcing a few shrubs into bloom indoors, cut some twigs of lilac and forsythia and immerse them in a bath of warm, not hot, water for a few hours, then put them in a vase indoors when you should soon see some lovely flower heads.

To encourage the best possible crop of raspberries, strawberries etc. now is the time to sprinkle a handful per square yard of sulphate of potash around the plants which will encourage flowering and fruiting.

Finally, we're coming to the end of the time when you can play musical shrubs and trees so if you want to rearrange your garden now's the time to get cracking.

Happy gardening

It's Here!!! No Time to Die

Friday February 11 2022

Performance begins 7 pm, doors open 6.30 pm (please note earlier start)

Prepare yourself for a great evening. James Bond is coming to Lenham! Come along ready for a 7 pm start, slightly earlier than usual, to watch his 25th action drama, No Time to Die (12A 2021), the last one to star Daniel Craig. It's a long film, but you won't even notice that. There'll be an interval so that you can get your breath back in time for the thrills and shocks of the second half.

In No Time to Die James Bond has peacefully retired from active service. With Madeleine Swann, his lady friend from Blofeld times, Bond is basking in the Jamaican sun when his old friend Felix Leiter pays him a visit. His mission? Sounds easy. He's come to ask Bond to help him in his search for a kidnapped scientist, Bond agrees – but it leads to his tracking down of a mysterious villain (played by Rami Malek) whose weapon is a dangerous new technology. And that means trouble! Bigtime.

Director: Cary Joji Fukunaga. Running time: 2hrs 43mins.
